

Annual Seminar

Saturday 30th May 2015

Pambula Public School Hall

25 Oregon St, Pambula

10am to 4pm

CORA NUM

Cora Num has worked as a professional family history researcher and lecturer for over twenty years. She had been writing and publishing quality Australian genealogy guides since 1995. In 1997 she established CoraWeb, an internationally recognised site tracing family history in Australia and elsewhere. She regularly presents to a wide variety of groups and organisations, such as family history societies, computer user groups. Libraries, museums, historical societies and other various community groups. Cora will give two presentations during the day.

BILL HOUSTON

Bill Lieutenant Colonel retired, is now working full time in the Army History Unit, will provide details on accessing and researching Military History.

LAMBIS ENGLEZOS

Lambis is the man who worked tirelessly and with dogged determination to prove that the missing in action soldiers at Pheasant Wood, near Fromelles, France were buried behind the German Lines.

Lambis will detail his exacting and thorough research, the seemingly insurmountable brickwalls that he had to climb and his final vindication when the soldiers were reburied with military honours.

Lambis is a retired school teacher whose passion was to find the missing soldiers.

As Lambis' presentation will have a wider appeal, not for only family historians, the general public are invited to come and hear his presentation at a reduced rate.

FULL DAY SEMINAR , including morning and afternoon teas and light lunch	$35
Lambis Englezos only with afternoon tea.	$15
